MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. James S. Lay, Jr.
Executive Secretary
National Security Council

SUBJECT: Security Survey of Inspection and Security Office

As has been discussed with you previously, the Central Intelligence Agency has desired to ascertain the adequacy of its security policies and procedures and of the implementation of its security program. To this end it would be necessary that a comprehensive and intensive study be made of the Office of Inspection and Security, CIA, to include examination of the functions delegated to that Office, the policies and procedures established by the Security Officer and the implementation of the Security Program by that Office.

Through your fine cooperation Mr. J. Patrick Coyne, Advisor on Internal Security to the National Security Council, who is admirably qualified in a high professional degree, has initiated such a survey.

The Central Intelligence Agency greatly appreciates your cooperation in making the services of Mr. Coyne available to it for the purpose of conducting this survey.
